THE QUEEN'S NAME - A correspondent writes to the London Times protesting against the error of supposing that the family name of the present reigning dynasty in Great British is Guelph If the royal fan-ity can be said to have a family name that name is o'Este, not Guelph. The last Gu lph of the male line was Guelph III., Dake of Carintais. He died without issue and left the representation of his family to his only sister, Cunegunds, who, in 1040 wedded Azud'Este, Marquis of Este. From this marriage, is direct male line, descend ed all the members of the royal and ducal families of Hanover and Biusswick, whos correct family came, therefore, is d'E-te. That this is the case is evident irem the fact that the children of the late Augus us Frederick (Duke of Sussex), whose marriego with Lady Augusta Murray was investidated by the royal marriage act of 1772, sesumed the surname of d'Ede, not Gueipe.

There are ver, many however, who maintain that when she wedded with the German prince consert Victoria forf-lited and that all her children should be regarded To Norfolk and Fortress Monroe. as members of the Wetten family whose name their father bore, this being the cutom and law of Christendom.

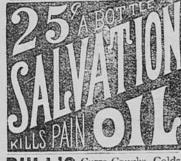

Rev. J O R. Corlies, pastor of the Meth odiet Church at New Gretne, Burlington county, N. J., writes very encouragingly as follows:

Dr. G. W. Kirk Dear Sir-About four years ago I took a heavy cold that resulted in a stubborn catarrh. It icrossed in severity, gradually extending downward to the pharynx and larynx, thence to the bronchia. The back part of my threat was covered with ulcers; my voice lest its strength and resonance, sometimes fading away into aspirations. To go out into cool air was to be filled up with phlegm and mucous until it was no pleasure to leave the house. I tried remedies officinal and remedies pate tid, with no relief, the disease still increasing in melignance. Radam's microbe Killingraphy. remedies pate t.d, with no relief, the discuss still increasing in matignance. Radam's wherebe Kill-or was snggested to me, and had come one other than yourself had charge of it I should have dismissed it from my mind. Having conflictnes in your judgment i cit "there must be something in it." A faithful use of the rimedy has convinced me that there is all vation in it for every catarrhal sufferer. I feel improved nevery way; health much improved, voice atreng, discharges much less proluse, uleers healed, hear eness gone, can get a full breath of air—in short, can say the remedy is all that's claimed for it. MEDICINAL.

When an infant my body broke out all over with an eruption or rash, which became more aggravated as I grew older. Every noted physician in our section was tried or consulted. When I came of age I visited Hot Springs, Ark., and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had failed I determined to try S. S. S., and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible Eczema was all gone, not a sign left; my general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease.
